

Specialist Resourcing

Service Overview

Understanding the Challenges

Savantor has gained the reputation of being a supplier of a broad range of high quality services and people to the financial services and card payment industry. These services include consultancy, implementation services, interim and permanent specialists, training and operational process improvement. Our success and reputation has been built upon being able to rapidly support clients with timely, quality expertise. By utilising our extensive experience we are able to rapidly identify the peaks and troughs of a client's project requirements and to offer advice on the most expedient method of satisfying those needs.

Providing an Effective Solution

Savantor prides itself on establishing long-term, effective relationships with our clients in order to develop our businesses to mutual benefit. Quality and experience are the watchwords of the company as a whole and apply equally to the supply of industry specialists. The experience of our practice managers is combined effectively with the ready availability of a broad range of quality professionals, to enable organisations to achieve their strategic development plans. We provide interim and permanent specialists for business and technical projects for many of our European clients. To ensure critical objectives are achieved and improve productivity, any specialists supplied by Savantor have access to our support centre, which provides an extensive knowledge base and process framework that is maintained by other industry specialists.

Savantor offers a proven supply process that, coupled with specific domain knowledge, enables us to identify, assess and intelligently filter relevantly skilled expertise, thereby ensuring that clients are only presented with the most eligible specialists. This service covers the following key areas:

- Specialist permanent recruitment.
- Specialist interim placements.
- Executive and industry specialist search.

Savantor also provides a business and IT support team structure that encompasses such aspects as project/programme management, managed teams, testing teams and project office support. Our project teams can supplement existing client projects or undertake distinct activities.
